

Sun. 6. 6. 26. Before the usual Sunday Puran was begun Baba called the mandali together and distributed amongst <sup>them</sup> the necessary clothings as well as instructed the Tailor to prepare shirts and coats for those who needed them badly. In the afternoon the boys were made to debate amongst themselves under the guidance of Inohar who conducted the amusing and instructive function ably and nicely.

After Bhaoo Savalarna's special Sunday Bhajans tea was served to all the boys and the mandali which was declared to be as a mark of pleasure at Gadekar's successful result ~~of~~ in the recent Inter examinations.

In the evening Bhaoo Chimas father brought two baskets of mangoes for Baba which were distributed there and then amongst the mandali and the boys. After supper when all were gathered about Baba, He gave some interesting explanations on Devine subjects as well as made every one of them give ~~to~~ Him a song.

The latter order which was executed by all those present <sup>(some Kaka)</sup> caused a great merriment at the discomfiture and nervousness displayed by most of them.

Mon. 7. 6. 26.

The beginning of the monsoon was witnessed today. From the early hours in the morning unusually fierce wind and gale was sweeping over Tucherabad. For the same reason the boys were allowed to get up late this morning.

the daily drill in the evening could not also be properly performed. Though actual raining commenced after all had retired early at 9:0'clock in the night it drizzled continuously all through the night. The question whether Gadakar should proceed with further studies or not was one of the matters considered upon <sup>in a special meeting that was convened</sup> at 12 this noon after Baba's return from the Hill.

The matter was decided in favour of Gadakar when all agreed to ~~see~~ his proceeding with his further education unanimously. On account of the chilly weather the usual evening Puran was cancelled and Baba went back to the Hill as early as 7.45. this evening

Tue. 8. 6. 26. The Divine Cake

Exactly after 12 hours i.e. at 7.45. this morning Baba came down from the Hill. The atmosphere was comparatively very fine today. The boys were made to get up again at the usual early hours and set for their respective studies.

During some discussions Baba was 'heard' to remark that the true pleasure of eating a Bhajya (spiced cake) is when it is prepared out of the FLOUR of SANSKARS, & fried with the OIL of Devotion over the FIRE of LOVE!

Baba returned to the Hill at 8.45. tonight.

Wed. 9. 6. 26.

It was a dull and stormy day. The breeze was so strong that the drill was performed by the boys in the school premises. The Puran in the was not held after supper as per the daily routine and some of the boys who go home for the night were allowed to do so earlier. In spite of that the latter were caught in a passing shower of rain. Baba who at that time was at Kaka's place, at the sight of the drenched boys, came walking in the rain to the school and took Pandoba, Vishnu, and Chanji to task for the neglect in not properly judging the situation before allowing the boys to go out. After the heavy shower had subsided Baba went to the Hill.

Thur. 10. 6. 26.

Baba came down very early today i.e. at 7.30. and went straight to the gymnasium where the mandali were at that time exercising against the 'Influenza' and thus gave them a pleasant surprise.

The usual <sup>Thursday</sup> tea party was held at Kaka's house this afternoon when Baba discoursed upon spiritual subjects for hours together holding the mandali spell bound with interest and attention. The chief point on which Baba dwelt was Religion which he said in the real sense means to know God to see God and to become one with God, otherwise the rest of it was all custom and drill!

There were many visitors <sup>today</sup> to Baba including Ram-Surti the Indian sandow who looked very prominent <sup>amongst them</sup> on account of his full professional dress that he had put on.

Fri. 11. 6. 26.

Baba came down today at 9.30.

Of late, since four or five days Baba has been sitting in the small tonga. He ~~was~~ came by that tonga today from Kaka's place to the Guckan. Baba also played ~~for some~~ cricket for sometime this evening. The party were to go to Ram - Gurtis' circus this evening but the programme was cancelled at the eleventh hour as Adi could not spare the motor conveyance as per prearrangement.

When Baba was informed about it, He said so much the better, the whole of the existence is a circus show if one cares to see it that way, instead of troubling oneself in going to a circus itself. However the mandali ~~were~~ did not after all miss a good amusement.

After supper and the evening Puran, Baba ~~acted~~ called the mandali together at 8.30. & made every one of them deliver lectures in such languages which they knew the best!

The result was <sup>that</sup> the funniest utterances of twisted and broken sentences were heard and immensely enjoyed by all at each other's discomfiture and expense! After <sup>those</sup> ~~that~~ novel amusing lectures came to an end Baba departed towards the hill.
